The members of the Society of the Sacred Heart have been in Ireland since 1842. To-day we have a presence in 41 countries and number approximately 2,000. RSCJ in Ireland live and minister in Armagh and Dublin. We are engaged in a variety of activities, spiritual, pastoral, healthcare, educative, administrative and the promotion of justice, peace and the integrity of creation.

Women of prayer
Women of compassion
Women with a purpose

Sacred Heart Spirituality is...
...devoted to the heart of Jesus
.......discovering and making known the love of God
.......contemplating the depths of God and open to the reality of our world
